Street's General Advertising Offices,

In order to show that this caution is necessary, and as a specimen out of many cases referred to us, we annex a discharge for a debt with the confession which the parties were compelled to sign in order to avoid criminal proceeding.

LONDON.

We hereby acknowledge the receipt of Eighteen Shillings and Ninepence in full settlement of all our claims and our unjust demand for Twenty Pounds, alleged to have been expended by us for Advertisements on behalf of Mr. _____.

We hereby Confess that the statements contained in our Letters to the said Mr. _____ dated from _____ are false, and further, that the statements in question are a pure fabrication on our part. Should Mr. _____ or Mr. STREET, find at any time that our false statements have proved injurious to either of them, we hereby authorise them to use this confession in any way that may be deemed necessary by either Mr. _____ or Mr. STREET.

(Signed)

Witness—

(Signed) S. P. STREET,

30, Cornhill.

Street's General Advertising Offices,

Having been appointed Agents for the London Gazette, we have made arrangements to have all announcements properly transcribed on the authorized forms at the shortest notice, and copied for other leading papers, and also to have them carefully translated into any language, when necessary, and inserted in any foreign or colonial journal, published in any part of the world.

In conclusion, we would respectfully invite special attention to the subjoined selection from the numerous testimonials that we have had the gratification of receiving from Her Majesty's Commissioners, and other official authorities, in addition to those from large commercial firms, giving ample proof of the perfect satisfaction which our system commands.

Advertisements in the English and Scottish have been efficient and regularly of your assistance, and were commendable; and as much of the work has been done by observation, I feel pleased to give you the assurance of the good opinion of the proprietors.

I am, Gentlemen,

Yours very truly,

Messrs. STREET BROTHERS.

WOLVERHAMPTON, 20th Decr 1861.

DEAR SIR,

Mr. GOSNOLD has been good enough to favour us that he is well satisfied with the Advertising we have done for him, and that he

we obtained so good value for the money laid out as during the period Mr. Street has acted for us alone; whilst, through the admirable system adopted by Mr. S., the trouble of checking the advertisements is reduced to almost nothing.

Hoping that you would favour Mr. Street with a trial which, we are sure, you never would regret.

LONDON, November 25th, 1887.

DEAR SIRS,

We experience great pleasure in testifying to our high opinion of Messrs. SPARKS & BORNEMISSE's competence with management of Advertising.

We have for many years entrusted to them the management of our Advertisements, and the result has been of an exceedingly varied and interesting character. We have been enabled to place our Advertisements to them, and in justice must admit, their arrangements have been admirable, both as regards the mode of placing them, and of attracting general attention, combined with the saving for economy and a perfect system of checking, and as a result in every instance, due probably to even the efficiency of the management.

We may also add, that not only has the conduct of our Advertising proved entirely satisfactory to us, but the result compared most favourably, in every respect, with what we paid previous to our arrangement with you.

We therefore confidently recommend Messrs. SPARKS & BORNEMISSE as deserving a trial, which will prove of great value to them a permanent addition to the list of clients to whom they already enjoy.

We remain, Dear Sirs, very respectfully,

Yours truly, J. DEERINGS.

PARAFFINE CANDLE WORKS, LAMBETH, LONDON,

1st November, 1867.

DEAR SIR,

We have much pleasure in introducing Messrs.
STREET BROTHERS to your notice.

As you are aware, we have advertised rather extensively lately, and these gentlemen have for the past three years entirely conducted this business for us. We have had every reason to be satisfied with the arrangement, not only in regard of the correctness and promptitude always experienced, but from the great saving effected in comparison with what we paid formerly when treating with publishers direct.

We are, yours truly,

Mr. GEORGE STREET, of 30, Cornhill, has had the management of our Advertising business for the last three years, and has conducted it to our entire satisfaction.

We find his prices in no case higher than we used to
